Annual Conference 2023 Keynote Speakers

Joel Goldberg – Speaker/Author/Broadcaster

A native of suburban Philadelphia and Chicago, Joel Goldberg has been a member of the Kansas City Royals television broadcast since 2008, serving as the host of every pregame and postgame show on FOX Sports Kansas City and Bally Sports KC. Joel built a 25-year career developing and maintaining strong relationships with professional athletes, coaches, and team management and he now shares those stories and strategies with companies and associations as a speaker and motivator.

Michelle Mader – Managing Director, Healthcare Strategic Advisory at Ankura

For more than 22 years Michelle has guided the transformation of healthcare organizations with a broad range of system-based strategic initiatives, specializing in national, multi-state and regional network planning. She develops strategic and capital planning scenarios based on financial variables related to market, demand, payers, utilization, productivity, technology and other OpEx and CapEx requirements. By starting with financial viability and positive investment indicators, she shortens our clients' development process, enables quicker funding approvals, and expedites implementation.

George Mills – Director of Technical Operations - JLL

George Mills is the Director of Technical Operations for JLL Healthcare. In this role, George provides healthcare expertise over the JLL healthcare program, and supports account teams with innovation, program development, and ensuring the goals of higher reliability are achieved. Leading the Healthcare Performance Optimization Group, his team is instrumental in the implementation and support to the JLL healthcare community.

George was formerly the Director for the Department of Engineering at The Joint Commission. In this role, George provided standards interpretation and education to The Joint Commission's Surveyors and accredited organizations and is a nationally recognized speaker and author.

Additional Presentations KCAHE Annual Conference

In addition to the speakers listed on the previous page, KCAHE will also feature two panel discussions at this year's event.

One of those panels will focus on Decarbonization and will feature Walt Vernon, Michael Hatton, Nick Burke and Josh Smith. Renee Jacobs, former KCAHE President and current ASHE faculty member will moderate this panel.

The other panel presentation will look at MEP Cyber Security. This panel will feature Tim Koch and Scott Klawitter with HDR and will be moderated by David Brearly, senior professional associate and the operational technology cybersecurity director at HDR in Charlotte, North Carolina.

KCAHE Education Sessions Johnson County Community College

KCAHE will offer the following educational sessions FREE of charge for current KCAHE members. Registration is limited so make sure to register early.

Principles of Leadership -Leadership means setting goals, lighting a path, and persuading others to follow. Participants learn how to adapt their leadership style to meet every individual's needs. This course for leadership development is designed to help create and accomplish individual's goals and to help lead others to get extraordinary things done. CECs - 2 hours

Coaching: Moving People Forward - In this course, leaders recognize the benefits of a growth mindset, and the insight tool measures their general orientation to how they view others' potential to grow. They learn and practice a practical approach to coaching in the moment, in any situation. CECs - 4 hours
